

Canadian Hearties Interview with When Calls the Heart Cast Members

Featuring: Adrian Hough (Reverend Anderson)

Adrian is best known for X-Men: The Last Stand (2006), Rise of the Planet of the Apes (2011) and Underworld: Evolution (2006). He has also worked doing voice over work, but for us Hearties, he's our evolving Reverend Anderson. We find him, in the beginning, distressed and dejected and it appears that he is losing his flock to Catharine's bible study in the woods. Eventually we see him find forgiveness and a renewed sense of purpose shepherding his sheep in Coal Valley on When Calls the Heart (2014).

Below are the questions we asked Adrian and his willing responses! Thank you so much Adrian for taking the time to participate and share with your Hearties fans!

1. When did you first know you wanted to become an actor?

I was 11, took creative drama classes on Saturday morning classes.

2. What was your favorite show growing up and why?

I remember way back watching the Sunday night family movie. The whole family would gather around after dinner.

3. What hobbies and interests do you have outside of acting?

I swim in the ocean regularly, all year round, And I have an interest in the environment.

4. What drew you to audition for When Calls the Heart?

I was called in to play the Reverend, and I have a soft spot for playing men of god, who struggle, and I love redemption themes for characters. There is something both weak and strong about the reverend I played in Season 1. And I have a deep interest in human emotions, and how they play out in story.

5. What do you love about your character on WCTH and how would you like to see your character develop?

Same as question 4.

6. If you could choose to play any character on WCTH, who would it be and why?

I played it already!

7. What is your favorite WCTH scene/moment?

Favourite moment was probably the poppy seed cake moment with the piano, where he hears something that changes his mind, and heart.

8. What about WCTH inspires you?

WCTH is a warm family drama, which captures the spirit of family shows from the 70s. What's not to love?

How Canadian Are You? (Just for Fun)

1. Where is your favorite place in Canada?

Vancouver Island is my favourite place. So full of amazing beauty, and ocean and 1000 year old trees, some of the oldest on the Earth. and in terms of cities, Montreal, which combines the French-ness of Paris and the energy of New York.

2. Who is your favorite famous Canadian?

Always admired Donald Sutherland, and finally got to work with him a few years ago on the Western, Dawn Rider

3. Napkin or Serviette?

Napkin..hmm

4. Mr. Dress Up or Friendly Giant?

Friendly.. got to be Friendly

5. Nanaimo Bar or Butter Tart?

BUTTER TART, HAVE YOU EVER?

6. Moose or Beaver?

Moose. (Bullwinkle for extra points)

7. Ketchup Chips or Poutine?

Ew and Ew

8. Coffee Crisp or Aero?

Tough one! Aero

9. Hockey or Curling?

Neither. I played basketball in high school.

10. Duct Tape or Zipper?

Duct Tape, of course. Fixes everything

I'd like to thank the fabulous Hearties for all your support for the show! It was my pleasure to work with all of the cast and crew!
