

Canadian Hearties When Calls the Heart Cast Interviews

Featuring: Gracyn Shinyei (Emily Montgomery)

Gracyn started acting in toy commercials at age 3 and then progressed into film and TV work. In 2012, Gracyn was cast in the feature film, called Final Girl, and played a small part as the younger version of the Abigail Breslin character. This movie is an Adult Thriller and was just released on Friday, August 14th.

At the 2014 Joey Awards (Acting awards for Canadian Youth) she and her alumni tied for Ensemble cast in a Dramatic TV series and she won Best Actress (9 and younger) for the lead in a dramatic TV series. Both roles for our favorite show, When Calls the Heart.

Her career is really taking off, so look out for her Hearties, and let's show her support!! She has a small reoccurring role on the new TV series called "Man in the High Castle" which starts airing in late 2015 early 2016. She is filming a reoccurring guest spot on "Supernatural" playing a character very different from Emily! That will be airing later this fall. She just hosted/sang/danced in the 2015 women's FIFA opening ceremonies on stage with Sarah McLachlan and Tegan and Sara! You can watch her performance here: (<https://vimeo.com/131266311>). She is performing this week at the Pacific National Exhibition on stage with several other actors/dancers from the Vancouver area in a kids themed stage show.

Facebook: She has great parents and at 9 years old...does not have a Facebook!

Twitter: @GracynGirl

Click the link to watch Gracyn's Interview: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Vc3bWExr4Zk>